

Letter to the Members

Dear RDCL Members,

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to each one of you for your presence and active support at RDCL's Annual General Assembly, held on June 2 at ESA Business School - Fattal Auditorium.

I am deeply honored to have been elected as the first woman President of RDCL. I assume this responsibility with pride, humility, and a profound sense of purpose. I pledge to serve with dedication and commitment.

I also extend my warm congratulations to the newly elected Board members. I look forward to working closely with each of you: Cyrille Arida - Vice President, Robert Kanaan - Secretary General, Valerie Zakka - Treasurer, Hassib Lahoud - Membership Officer, Hassan Sinno - Outreach Officer, and the Board Members Diane Ayoub, Christelle Boustany, Dalia Jubeili, Nadim Daher, Labib Nasr, and Jean Tawile.

This is also a moment to express our sincere gratitude to our outgoing President, Nicolas Boukather. His visionary and determined leadership elevated the voice of the private sector. Thank you, Nicolas!

To our departing Board members — Joumana Dammous Salameh, Roula Gharios Zahar, Hadia Minkara, Fateh Bekdache, and Farid Homsy — thank you for the significant contributions you made to RDCL's mission in the legal private sector. It has been an honor to work alongside you, and we look forward to your continued presence in the life of our Association.

RDCL is more than a business association — it is a beacon of leadership in a time of national challenge. It must remain a space for courageous dialogue, principled leadership, and private sector engagement in shaping a more just, stable, and prosperous Lebanon.

Together - not only as a Board but in active collaboration with all our members - we will move forward. I firmly believe that every member has a voice, and that voice has the power to shape the future of our Association.

RDCL will continue to serve as one leading voice of Lebanon's legal private sector, bringing together the country's most visionary and dynamic business minds.

With your trust, your voice, and your energy, I am confident we can make this mandate one of impact, inclusion, and renewed relevance.

Thank you once again for the tremendous honor and responsibility.
I carry it with pride.

With deep appreciation,
